THE HOLY SPIRIT

LESSON TEXT—John 16:7-11; Romans 8:12-17, 26, 27.
GOLDEN TEXT—For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Our Unseen Helper.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Our Unseen Helper.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How the Holy Spirit Helps Us.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Work of the Holy Spirit.

I. The Personality of the Spirit (John 16:7, 8).

Personality is here implied by the use of the personal pronoun. In the original Scriptures personal pronouns are used uniformly in speaking of the Spirit. Then, too, He is called the Comforter. The word "comforter" literally means one called to stand by the side of another as a helper, counsellor and guide. While Jesus sojourned in the world He was such to His disciples. He assured them that upon His withdrawal the Holy Spirit would take His place as friend, helper and counsellor. The personality of the Spirit is also proved by the fact that He performs acts only possible to persons. In John 14:26 He performs the function of a teacher. He not only teaches, but He speaks as a person, giving direction to the disciples as in Acts 8:29 and 13:2. His personality is again proved by the fact that men act toward Him as they could act only toward a person. In Isaiah 63:10 the prophet declared that men vexed the Holy Spirit. It would be manifestly improper to speak of vexing an influence; only a person can be vexed. In Matthew 12:31 Jesus speaks of men blaspheming against the Holy Spirit. It would be impossible to blaspheme against an influence. In Ephesians 4:30 Paul speaks of grieving the Spirit. Again, it would be manifestly improper to speak of grieving an influence. Further, in 1 Corinthians 12:11 Paul speaks of the Holy Spirit exercising the function of will. One of the essential characteristics of personality is that of volition. The Holy Spirit is represented as divine. He has the attributes of deity. In Psalm 139:7-9 He is declared to be omnipresent; in I Corinthians 2:9-11 omniscient. He also performs the works of God. He is the creator and renewer (Ps. 104:30). He is called God in Acts 5:3-4, and II Corinthians 3:18.

II. How Believers are Related to the Holy Spirit. They are regenerated by Him (John 3:5-8); they are indwelt by Him (I Cor. 6:19; Gal. 4:6). He also fills (Eph. 5:18 and Acts 4:31). To be filled with the Holy Spirit is the duty of every believer. No one has the right to perform any work for Christ without this filling (Luke 24:48,49; Acts 1:8). Even the temporalities of the church should be in the hands of Spirit-filled men (Acts 6:1-3).

III. What the Holy Spirit Does (John 16:8-11).

1. Convicts the world of sin (v. 8). The one awful sin of the world is unbelief. The Holy Spirit convicts the people of the world of their error concerning sin and shows their guilt before God.

2. He convicts the world of righteousness (v. 10).

The resurrection and ascension of Christ prove that He is the Righteous One, and that righteousness is only possible as He is accepted as Savior.

3. He convinces the world of judgment.

To be convinced of the reality of Judgment is the crying need of the world today. Sin unatoned for shall be punished. The sinner who refuses the righteousness which God provided in Jesus Christ also shall be judged.

4. The Spirit mortifies the deeds of the flesh (Rom. 8:12, 13).

The only way to get the victory over our carnal natures is to give the place of rulership to the Holy Spirit.

5. He leads the believer (v. 14).

The Spirit-filled believer lives the life of the Son of God.

6. He gives assurance to the believer (Rom. 8:15-17).

The Holy Spirit witnesses together with the human spirit to the reality of the new birth.

7. He enables the believer to pray according to the will of God (Rom. 8:26, 27).

While the believer does not know how to pray as he ought, the Holy Spirit helpeth his infirmity. All prayer which the Holy Spirit indites the Heavenly Father answers.

Partner of the Lord

Every young man and woman should be a junior partner with the Lord Jesus for the salvation of the world.—Jacob Chamberlain.

A Ruined Day

The whole day may be ruined by an impatient word, a prejudiced judgment, a hasty decision, a fit of ungoverned temper.—J. C. Massee.

All Prayers Not Answered

I have lived long enough to thank God that all my prayers were not answered.—Jean Ingelow.

Battle Won by Prayer

Why talk so much? The battle is won by prayer.—J. W. Lee

PAMPLIN

Those visiting the Lynchburg Chapter of O. E. S. No. 54 on Monday were: Mrs. Curtis Harvey, Mrs. C. E. Massey, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. C. H. McCall and Mrs. Jimmie Layne.

Mrs. Walter Rice is working a relief agent at Brookneal this week.

Mrs. Curtis entertained at bridge last Thursday night. Those playing were: Mrs. McCall, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Lukin, Mrs. Jas. McDearmon, Mrs Thos. Pugh, Mrs Leslie Ligon, Misses Mecie Davis, Wilsie Thornton, Elaine McDearmon, Wanda Fox and R. Curtis Harvey. Delightful refreshments were served by hostess.

We regret the deaths of Mrs. Edgar Covington and Mr. T. H. Lacy. We extend the loved ones our most heartfelt sympathy.

We want to assure you that Pamplin sympathizes with those who lost so heavily in the recent fires at Appomattox and Rice. It has not been so many years ago when the business section of Pamplin was burned.

Mrs. Ed. Carwile, Mrs. Rosa Franklin, Mrs. H. T. Terry, Miss Wilsie Thornton and Mr. Ned Carwile motored to Farmville to see that wonderful picture "Ring of Rings."

We are glad to announce that "Flo" is not quite so bad in our section and many of our patients are out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murphy and family moved to Lynchburg last Friday. We will miss these kind neighbors, but wish them much success in the Hill City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Reeves, accompanied by Mrs. N. C. Crute, spent Monday in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Lillie Moses spent Sunday at Evergreen with her sister Mrs. E. G. Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thornton, of Roanoke, recently visited their mother Mrs. J. P. Thornton.

Mr. Tom R. Pugh is out again after a spell of flu.

Mrs. R. R. Davis entertained the Aid Society of the M. E. Church on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Allie Moses entertained at a dinner party on last Monday night. Those enjoying her hospitality were: Mrs. Walter Murphy, Mrs. E. E. Walker, Mrs T. N. Ranson, Mrs. Curtis Harvey, Mrs. H. T. Terry and Rev. and Mrs. J. E. White

(Too late for last issue.—Ed.)

Reeves—Buil

Rev. Hiram L. Reeves and Miss Margaret Buil were married during the Xmas — the Rev. J. H. Harris officiating. The bride is the pretty and accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs. N. H. Buil, of Fayette, Miss., and the groom is the son of Mrs. Maude Reeves, of Mt. Solon Augusta County, and a graduate of Hampden Sydney College and Union Theological Seminary. The bride is a graduate of the Wesson Normal School, of Miss. Rev. Reeves is pastor of a groupe of churches near Pamplin. The people at Pamplin are very glad to welcome them in their midst and extend them their best wishes.

Thought for Today

Truth is the bond of union and the basis of human happiness. Without this virtue, there is no reliance upon language, no confidence in friendship, no security in promises and oaths.—Collier.

Mane Puzzled Betty

Little Betty was viewing the various animal exhibits at the zoo with wide-eyed interest. Pausing before the lion's cage she asked her mother: "Does he always wear a fur neck piece in the summer time?"

Badly Run-Down

"Six years ago, I was very much run-down," says Mrs. Olympia Right, of Lovett, Ga. "I did not sleep well, and was weak and restless. I dragged around the house with no ambition. I was in a badly taks. I worried a lot, and this disturbed state of mind reacted on my health. "I had often read of Cardui, so I thought I would try it. I soon began to improve after I had taken Cardui for a while. "It was astonishing how much I picked up. I slept better, my appetite improved, and that dragging-down feeling left me. "I was so much better that I continued taking Cardui until I felt perfectly well." Cardui has been used by women for over 50 years. For sale by all druggists.
